WORD: THE LIGHT OF CHRIST DRAWS SERVANT LEADERS TO CONSECRATE THEIR LIVES IN WORSHIP AND SERVICE TO GOD.

CORE VALUE: ZEAL FOR COMMUNITY AND MISSION

PROPHECY:

- I have always been with you.
- My child, speak in truth and in faith, for I am with you.
- I came that you may have life and have it to the full.
- I will hear the cries of the poor and the afflicted for my mercy and compassion know no boundaries.
- To you My light has shone. Walk in My Light.

ORDER:

*“Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!”
Isaiah 60:1*

*“Raise your eyes and look about”
Isaiah 60:4*

DIRECTIONS:

1. Let us thirst for the knowledge of God through His son Jesus Christ, the light, the source of true knowledge and wisdom.
2. We are to bring the light of Christ to those we meet through the witness of our lives.

REFLECTION:

“Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.” Isaiah 60:1

“Jesus Christ is the light and life of the world” (John 8:12). We have no light apart from Christ, “the true light”, which enlightens everyone. It is the light that advances our understanding; the light that comes forth from the presence of God; the light which gives life to all things. We, as Servant Leaders, are called to spread the light of Christ to others and shine in the darkness of the world.

Let each of us be the Light of Christ. Not a fire for all to see but a flickering flame, not extinguishable by man, may we always provide illumination of God’s love to all those around us. When others whether they be our friends, family, or loved ones fall into sin, darkness or despair, let our lives, kindness, love and compassion radiate the light of God through our very being.

Jesus, Light of the world, illumine us as we show the world what the Light of Christ truly is!
