EUCCHARISTIC CELEBRATION
REV. FR. ANTON C.T. PASCUAL

Series 2013/Issue 10

CORE VALUE: HUMILITY AND OBEDIENCE

WORD : All are called that we might share in the glory of the Resurrection of Christ.

ORDER : Do not grumble. 1Corinthians 10:10

PROPHECY : *I will build a solid foundation for you so that in times of distress, I will never leave you.
Come My children who are lost and troubled and I will refresh you.
I have given you a future full of hope. Do not be discouraged. Remain in me.
Come follow me. I came so that you may have life and have it abundantly.
And in all things, God works together for the Good of those who love Him and are called according to His purpose.*

DIRECTION : 1. Observe the discipline of prayer, fasting and almsgiving during the Lenten season.
2. Treat others with humility, respect and compassion.
3. Forgive and reconcile with people who have offended us just as Jesus forgives us for our sins.

REFLECTION:

As Christian disciples, we anticipate with great expectation the reward of eternal life promised by our Lord Jesus Christ. Just like the repentant thief, we fervently pray that Jesus will also tell us at the end of our earthly life, “Amen, I say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.” Luke 23:43

Our life is often filled with afflictions - material, physical, emotional and spiritual which may cause us to sin and at times, even our faith wavers and we become desolate, but great is the faithfulness and mercy of our God for He is the same yesterday, today and forever. As we reflect, pray and read God’s Word, we will re-discover the beauty of the fundamental truth that though we are sinners, God loves each one of us and that Jesus Christ is our Savior. “Through personal encounter with the Redeemer and through fasting, almsgiving and prayer, the journey of conversion towards Easter leads us to re-discover our Baptism.” (Pope Benedict XVI 2011 Lenten Message). Fasting is not just abstaining from food but we can also fast from things and activities that often are not necessary and even lead us to sin. Almsgiving is also not just giving money to those in need but sharing our time and talents to build up Christ’s Church. Let us be reminded that we are called not only to be “holy” during Lent, but what is more essential is a true conversion of our hearts and minds as followers of Christ all the days of our life. The glorified Christ inspires us to repent, forgive, be merciful and compassionate with our brethren and be reconciled with God. Then as promised in Colossians 3:4, “you too will appear with Him in glory.”
